

Graeme Dewar BSc (Hons) MRICS

Experience

Graeme founded GDS in 2007 with the aim of providing a tailored, friendly and personalized service to clients.

Extensive experience in delivery of our professional services including Design and Contract Administration, Building Surveying, Principle Designer, CDM Advisor and Employer's Agent.

Specialist in construction technology, detailing and traditional forms of construction. Extensive experience in supported housing. As well as residential, his work has taken him into the education, commercial, retail and automotive sectors.

Chartered building surveyor for over 20 years with experience of the public sector, particularly social housing, education and commercial buildings. Lead consultant for large multi discipline commissions.

Responsibilities

Director with direct responsibility for a delivery team including customer care and quality monitoring of our services.

Responsibility for resource management and coordination between delivery teams for all major projects.

Director responsible for business development, all major quality and fee tender submissions and fee performance monitoring.

Practice specialist on employer's agent and professional services commissions.

Director

Qualifications:

2000: Member of The Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (MRICS)

1996: BSc (Hons) Building Surveying

